Numiga –
the travel expenses of professionals

Numiga is the leading outsourcing provider for travel expense reporting and travel management processes. With our special employee knowledge and our various services and solutions, we reliably optimize the process costs associated with your business travel. Numiga, headquartered in Bremen, Germany, offers customized complete solutions from a single source. Hand over your travel expense report to our professionals, they will ensure a fast and legally compliant expense report considering your internal company guidelines. So, you can concentrate on your core business.

Amadeus cytric Travel & Expense

Amadeus cytric Travel & Expense is a cost-efficient solution for managing business travel processes. Amadeus cytric Travel & Expense offers an integrated system for travel booking and expense reporting. This allows you to keep track of your company's travel expenses throughout the entire travel booking and expense reporting process.

At a glance

Numiga Expense Master

Numiga offers its own developed "cytric Expense Master" in cooperation with Amadeus i:FAO to simplify the implementation of integrated booking and billing solutions. With a simplified implementation methodology, the Numiga cytric Expense Master is faster, more reliable and more cost effective to implement.

Numiga DIME

Numiga Dynamic Interface Manager Expense, DIME, is the professional service for transferring and converting data from cytric Expense to your individual interface format and ERP system. Access to data in our systems is subject to internal authorization structures and the storage of data on server systems is strictly separated, monitored and secured.

Amadeus cytric Expense Onboarding

Numiga also manages and supports the internal and external interfaces (communication) for customers as part of the Numiga Onboarding Service. Implementations are clearly arranged and can be scheduled for customers and project participants. Thus, we offer our customers a systematic progress in implementation management and guarantee a successful project launch.
